THIS CAUSE coming on to be heard and being heard before the undersigned at the close of a Rule 11 proceeding that was held before this court on December 31, 2009. It appearing to the court at the call of this matter on for hearing the defendant was present with his attorney, Sean P. Devereux and the government was present and represented through Assistant United States Attorney David Thorneloe. From the arguments of counsel for the defendant and the arguments of the Assistant United States Attorney and the records in this cause, the court makes the following findings:

Findings. On June 2, 2009 a bill of indictment was issued charging the defendant with the following offenses: Count One, transporting interstate or foreign commerce child pornography in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2252(a)(1), and in Count Two with possessing visual depiction of child pornography in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2252(a)(4)(B). On December 31, 2009, the undersigned held an inquiry, pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and accepted a plea of guilty of the defendant to the charge contained in Count One. At the end of the Rule 11 proceeding, this court presented the issue of whether or not the defendant should now be detained, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2).

Discussion. 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) provides as follows:

(2) The judicial officer shall order that a person who has been found guilty of an offense in a case described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of subsection (f)(1) of section 3142 and is awaiting imposition or execution of sentence be detained unless ----

(A)(i) the judicial officer finds there is a substantial likelihood that a motion for acquittal or new trial will be granted; or

(ii) an attorney for the Government has recommended that no sentence of imprisonment be imposed on the person; or

(B) the judicial officer finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person is not likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community.

From an examination of the records in this cause, it appears that the defendant has entered a plea of guilty on December 31, 2009 to the crime of transporting child pornography in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2252(a)(1). That crime is one of the crimes of violence that is referenced under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A) as that term is defined under 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4)(C). The undersigned made an inquiry of Assistant United States Attorney David Thorneloe as to whether or not there was going to be a recommendation that no sentence of imprisonment be imposed upon the defendant.

Mr. Thorneloe advised the court that such a recommendation could not be made in this matter. As a result, the undersigned cannot find there is a substantial likelihood that a motion for acquittal or new trial will be granted due to the plea of guilty of the defendant or that an attorney for the government has recommended or will recommend that no sentence of imprisonment will be imposed upon the defendant. It would thus appear, and the court is of the opinion that the court is required to apply the factors as set forth under 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) which require the detention of the defendant.

ORDER

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, that the terms and conditions of pretrial release in this matter are hereby REVOKED and it is ORDERED the defendant be detained pending further proceedings in this matter. This Order is entered without prejudice to any motion the defendant might file, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3145(b) and (c).

Signed: January 5, 2010

Dennis L. Howell
United States Magistrate Judge
